RISK WARNING & CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

RISK WARNING

Open water swimming can be a dangerous and risky activity and could result in your loss of life, injury or illness. The risks include, but are not limited to drowning; attack by sharks or stings by stingrays, bluebottles jimbles or other marine life; polluted or contaminated water; hazardous sea or beach conditions; collision or physical contact with other swimmers, spectators, buoys, boats and other marine craft (particularly if any part of the Event is in navigable waters), submerged rocks or other objects; medical emergencies (e.g. heart attack, epileptic fit, cramp, collapse or hypothermia) and hazardous weather conditions, including lightning strikes.

CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

1. Your participation in any swimming event ("Event") conducted, sponsored or endorsed by BBCE is AT YOUR OWN RISK. BBCE takes no responsibility for your safety or health during any such Event. You acknowledge having read and understood the Risk Warning above and accept all risks of the Event
2. You must be a competent swimmer, in good health and fitness to participate. If you suffer from any medical condition, you must first consult your medical adviser before participating. You must not participate if you are under the influence of, or affected by, alcohol, drugs, medication or other substances.
3. While BBCE might take precautions for the safety of participants, no lifeguard, medical attendant, patrol boat or other emergency assistance may be available to assist you if the need arises.
4. You must exercise care and courtesy to avoid accidents, collision with or injury to other participants. The Event is intended to be good fun and to promote fitness and comradeship, so you should enjoy yourself, but not at the expense of other participants.
5. You must observe the directions and instructions of the Event officials. Event officials have authority to remove a participant from the Event if considered to be incapable of continuing without risk of serious injury. All decisions of the Event officials are final and binding.
6. BBCE reserves the right to postpone or cancel the Event if it considers that the prevailing conditions so warrant. If the Event is cancelled then any Entry fee paid is not refundable.
7. Your registration is not transferable to any other person.
